Michigan Chamber honors Sen. McManus

LANSING – The Michigan Chamber of Commerce has honored state Sen. Michelle McManus, R-Lake Leelanau, as a Champion of Commerce in recognition of her 100-percent score on the Chamber's 2003-2004 Job Providers Index.

"This honor is particularly special coming from the Michigan Chamber because job creation is such an important issue for me," McManus said. "Along with my colleagues, I have devoted much time and energy to helping Michigan job providers. It is gratifying to see this work recognized."

The JPI covers a wide range of business issues. This year, the voting record in the Senate included 19 key roll call votes on issues such as education, environmental quality, human resources, regulatory affairs and tax policy.

Rep. Stephen Ehardt, R-Lexington; Philip J. LaJoy, R-Canton; John Moolenaar, R-Midland; and Mickey Mortimer, R-Horton, also were honored.
